

Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get a copy of your health and claims records	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ You can ask to see or get a copy of your health and claims records and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.▪ We will provide a copy or a summary of your health and claims records, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.▪ We may say “no” to your request for certain types of records, such as psychotherapy notes or information for use in civil, criminal or administrative actions. If we deny your request, we will tell you the reason why in writing.▪ You may have the right to have a licensed health care professional review the denial. We will let you know if this right is available.
Ask us to correct health and claims records	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ You can ask us to correct your health and claims records if you think they are incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.▪ We may say “no” to your request, but we will tell you why in writing within 60 days.▪ If your request is denied, you have the right to send us a statement to include in the record.
Request confidential communications	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, using your home or work phone) or to send mail to a different address.▪ We will consider all reasonable requests, and must say “yes” if you tell us you would be in danger if we do not.
Ask us to limit what we use or share	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations.▪ We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.▪ We are required to agree to your request, if you ask us not to share information with a health plan if you or someone else, other than the health plan, have paid for the care in full and when the disclosure is not required by law.

Get a list of those with whom we've shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We will provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in payment for your care.
- Share information in a disaster relief situation.
- Contact you for fundraising efforts.

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes.
- Sale of your information.
- Psychotherapy notes.
- Substance abuse treatment records.

Our Uses and Disclosures

How do we typically use or share your health information? We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.
